Anthony King is an accomplished educational leader with over a decade of experience in fostering academic excellence and developing transformative school cultures. His career spans various pivotal roles, including Math Teacher, Head Coach, Instructional Math Coach, Assistant Principal, and Principal, all within secondary education. A native of Montgomery County, Maryland, King holds a Bachelor of Science Degree with a Minor in Coaching from Frostburg State University. He also earned a Master of Education Degree in Educational Leadership from National Louis University and is currently pursuing an Executive Master's in Business Administration at Howard University.

From 2021 to 2024, King served as Principal at KIPP Columbus High (KCH), where he spearheaded initiatives that drove outstanding student outcomes. Under his leadership, KCH achieved a 100% graduation rate and a 100% college acceptance rate for the classes of 2022, 2023, and 2024. His unwavering focus on academic excellence and equitable opportunities ensured every student was prepared for success in higher education and beyond.

Before joining KIPP Columbus High, King was an Assistant Principal with Orange County Public Schools (OCPS) in Orlando, Florida. At Jones High School, he oversaw a comprehensive campus renovation and played a key role in improving the school's performance, contributing to an annual rise in its overall grade.

Beyond his school-based roles, King serves on several boards, where he advocates for policies and practices that enhance educational equity and community engagement. His board memberships allow him to leverage his expertise in strategic planning, leadership development, and student-centered initiatives to create lasting, systemic impact.

In addition to his board service, King is the CEO of The Student Stakeholder, LLC, a Consultant and Leadership Coach, collaborating with educators and organizations to build leadership capacity and improve student outcomes. His dedication to fostering equitable opportunities and transformative leadership is central to his professional mission and broader community work.
